

Rugby Tour to Delft, Holland

Visit Delft, the only city in Holland that has four Rugby teams. A city with a rich history and links to the royal Dutch family. A city centre that has more than 50 pubs and restaurants for your team to enjoy. The city is easily accessible from Rotterdam, The Hague and Amsterdam. The players of Rugby Club Delft want to invite you to have a look in this brochure and come enjoy our hospitality!

What to do in Delft?

- Go on the famous 'outside ring' pub crawl and visit the 20 most peculiar pubs Delft has to offer. Warning No team has ever completed this pub crawl!
- Go on a tour to the 'Jenever Museum' and test out the Dutch equivalent of Vodka.
- Go on a tour through our canals and explore the historic city centre.
- Visit the 'Prinsenhof' where the founder of the Dutch royal family Willem van Oranje was shot. Bullet holes are still in the wall.
- Have a great 'all you can eat' meal in one of Delft's many restaurants.
- Climb the church tower where the Dutch royal family is buried.

- Take the easy 'inside ring' pub crawl and visit some great pubs within no more than crawling distance between them!

Rugby in Delft

Delft has 4 Rugby clubs within the city.

RC Delft is the only non university affiliated rugby club in Delft, founded in 1974. The club has a full youth division and two senior teams. The first team plays in the second division of the Dutch rugby Board and our second team plays in the fourth division. Delft also has a ladies team playing in the ladies first division. And last but not least Delft has a veterans team called the Evergreens playing only social rugby.

Next to our club there are the following three university student clubs.

Delft student rugby club (DSRC) is founded in 1918 and is considered to be the oldest rugby club in Holland. The first team of DSRC plays in the Dutch first division, the second team in the third division.

RC Thor has two teams in competition, the first team plays in the Third division, the second team plays in the fourth division. Thor also has a veterans team called: 'The old engineers' playing only social rugby occasionally.

The fourth club is Sanctus Virgilius which plays one team in the fourth division of the the Dutch Rugby Board.

During your stay fixtures can be arranged against all of the above clubs.
